LOCAL MATTERS.

Hooker's Fine Horses.

Last week we referred to H. C. Hooker's two fine horses which he recently purchased in San Francisco and brought to Arizona. He left here last Saturday with them for his ranch near Camp Grant. Before leaving, we had the pleasure of a short ride behind them and must say they move rapidly and beautifully. Mr. Hooker informed us that the following, taken from The Yuma Sentinel, regarding the animals is correct:

One, "Jackson Rolla Gold-dust," is a bright bay stallion, 8 years old, stands 16 hands high and weighs 1150 pounds, of very fine style, without spot or blemish. When four years old, he trotted his mile in 2:30. He was sired by the celebrated horse "Gold-dust," of Kentucky, and is of the true Morgan stock. The other, "Pacoco," is a beautiful dapple gray stallion, 7 years old, 15½ hands high, weighs 1150 pounds, of fine style and a fast trotter. "Pacoco" was raised by Leander Sawyer of San Mateo, California. He is of the Messenger stock, and was sired by Sawyer's "Gray Messenger." They are both magnificent horses, and of course, gay and high mettled; were driven harnessed to a light buggy, with the greatest ease and safety, both being of the most kind and tractable disposition.

Mr. Hooker, in connection with Wm. B. Hooper & Co., is giving much attention to the breeding of fine cattle and horses in Arizona. They have a large lot of cows and about a dozen thoroughbred bulls, and in a few years will undoubtedly have, provided we have continued peace with the Indians, the finest lot of young horses and cattle in the Territory. Every body about Tucson who saw Mr. Hooker's horses, were emphatic in their admiration of them, and expressed themselves gratified that such were being brought here. Probably R. R. Haines had not seen Mr. Hooker before he told his absurdly false story to The Mirror.

Village Council Proceedings.

The village council met in regular session last Tuesday evening. Present mayor Toole, councilmen Etchells and Hughes and recorder Osborn.

The recorder reported that the annual reports of the officers would be completed by next Monday evening, also that at the annual election held on the 6th, J. H. Toole was elected mayor for one year; Samuel Hughes and R. N. Leatherwood members of the council for two years, and P. Drachman member for one year vice W. W. Williams resigned; E. Espurza was elected marshal; W. Morgan, assessor; E. N. Fish, treasurer, and J. Miller, postmaster—all but councilmen for one year. All but J. Miller had filed their oaths of office and the treasurer and marshal their bonds which were approved.

R. N. Leatherwood and P. Drachman appeared and took their seats as members. W. J. Osborn was unanimously re-elected recorder for one year, who at once filed his oath of office.

It was ordered that J. D. Grigalbe be notified and required to remove his fence now standing within the limits of Main street north.

It was ordered that the marshal proceed without unnecessary delay to enforce the tax ordinance relating to dogs, and that the recorder procure blanks for receipts and collars for the dogs.

Adjourned to next Monday evening.

The Supreme Court of Arizona met last Monday as required by law—judges Titus, Tweed and Porter all being present with O. Buckalew clerk. Cases were called Monday and set for argument. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday arguments were heard in different cases and the court adjourned over Friday till to-day, when we are informed the entire business of the term will be disposed of—except probably the filing of some opinions thereafter.

In the course of arguments, in one or two cases, the judges to fix the times of holding the district courts and incidentally the jurisdiction of those courts entered into the discussions. The questions are of very grave importance to the several counties as well as to litigants generally. We are not disposed to dabble in this matter and therefore have requested Governor Bashford and J. E. McCaffry to supply us with a written synopsis of their arguments and positions for print, and they have promised us the matter which will appear next week with any opinion the court may render touching the subject. THE CITIZEN will also contain other opinions, or explicit abstracts of them, which the court may file, deeming all such of special importance to the people.

Judge Foster expects to leave for Yuma by to-day's stage and Judge Tweed intends to remain in town awhile longer.

On Wednesday morning this community was thrown into much excitement by the act of a person who ought, if certainly discovered, be tied up, given fifty lashes on the bare back and but a few hours to start for a permanent residence elsewhere. The circumstances are these: A letter purporting to have been written by M. O'Reilly, at Reilly's station near Camp Grant, on the 8th, was found by I. Goldberg, having been shoved under his store door before business hours. It set forth that Eskiminzin's band of Apache's had, the day before, attacked Goldberg's mail train, wounding two of the teamsters and getting away with all but about twenty animals. It was sometime before the letter was recognized as a forgery by those who knew Mr. R.'s penmanship, and Mr. Goldberg was in no mood to philosophize and therefore himself and wife were greatly alarmed. Very soon, privates Louis Fritz and Marvin Trask, M Co., 5th Cavalry, heard of it and showed by their official pass, dated the 11th, that they had three days after the reported attack passed over the ground and that there was no truth in the forged letter. These two soldiers are fine appearing men and undoubtedly truthful. On Thursday Mr. Goldberg's wagon-master came in and reported all right and the train will be in to-day.

OWNERS of dogs may expect a vigorous enforcement of the village ordinance taxing canines. In the interest of hungry children, we think the enforcement highly proper.

GEORGE COOLER is putting a new and neat dress on the in and outside of his saloon.

JAMES LEE has verbally and by circular letter announced himself an independent candidate for sheriff of Pima county at the ensuing November election. Mr. Lee was induced to take this step not so much on his own motion as upon the urgent request of many substantial and good citizens. That he will be elected, there can hardly be a doubt; and that he will make an efficient officer, none who know him well will doubt. If he have opposition, it cannot be upon any ground unfavorable to himself. He is one of the very best of citizens and a hard working, upright man. He has done much to open mines and develop the country. He is a producer and a believer in a prosperous future for Arizona. We believe he has never before sought office, although solicited to do so. He is popular without ever having made any special effort to gain popularity. His long residence and continued business activity have made him widely as well as favorably known.

PERSONAL.—D. Velasco left by Monday's stage for a month or so to Sonora. He bears a fine reputation in Tucson, and is a very agreeable neighbor. Gov. Safford and J. W. Hopkins left on Wednesday for a trip to Pachuca, and Thomas Ewing left the same day for Prescott, expecting to return within a couple of weeks. Judge De Forest Porter, of Yuma, arrived by Sunday's stage. Dr. C. H. Lord, of Lord & Williams, will leave Monday next for the eastern cities via San Francisco. He expects to be absent about three months and to return with his wife. Doctor Lord has a large and liberal heart, is good to his friends, and very few are so good as him to the community at large. S. R. DeLong is in town from Apache Pass.

THE weather of the week has been changeable but mostly delightful. Sunday it was cloudy with now and then a sprinkle of warm rain, and Sunday night considerable rain fell, making the streets quite muddy. Very little rain fell on Monday and clouds hung round on Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday mostly clear and remarkably mild. We are much pleased at the return of such warm days and nights, for the thieves who steal our wood can let up a little and have lighter consciences. The sky is overcast this morning and a little rain falling. Air is mild.

THERE are plenty of California apples at Velasco & Roen's store on Main street. They were brought from San Francisco via Guaymas and are retailed for fifty cents per pound.

JOHN SMITH of Tubac is in town with a wagon load of beans grown upon his farm in 1873. As they are now clean, Los Angeles Haines will have no use for them.

Gen. Crook a Complete Brigadier.

The following dispatch from Senator Kelly speaks for itself:

WASHINGTON, January 14.—To General George Crook: I congratulate you on your confirmation by the Senate as a brigadier-general of the U. S. army.

JAMES K. KELLY.

Our readers are aware that the Senate hesitated to take this action because of an apparent legal prohibition, but a full and complete examination of the laws on the subject convinced senators that the confirmation could be legally made, and acted accordingly. We are of opinion that a less popular and deserving officer than Crook would not have led to the same action, for our advice is that there is a very strong disposition to reduce the rank of the army, and as soon as the present heads of bureaus die, resign, or are retired, that instead of brigadiers, colonels shall take their places.

The whole country, the President and Senate felt that Crook had earned a brigadiership and were determined he should have it, if not clearly illegal to give it to him. Of course there were over forty colonels and a few lieutenant-colonels whose rank naturally made them desire Crook's defeat—their own interests smothering all their care for a proper reward of merit. We knew this from the beginning and feared they might excite formidable opposition to the confirmation but said nothing for obvious reasons.

Even had the Senate declined to confirm Gen. Crook, no dishonor would have resulted to him. His merit and good services had been almost universally admitted. The press of the country, the President and cabinet had announced a preference for Crook's advancement over more than forty officers who ranked him. This compliment was a higher mark of distinction than has ever been awarded to an officer in times of peace in the history of our country, and no adverse law or other successful obstacle to his confirmation could dim the lustre of it.

We heartily congratulate General Crook upon the completion of his appointment as brigadier-general.

SHERIFF GOODWIN, of Yuma, arrived in San Diego, January 9, and left for San Francisco on the next day. He goes to Oakland to take Jesus Ortega alias Blanco, the Mission Camp murderer, back to Yuma for trial.

LIEUT. GEO. M. WHEELER, chief of the expedition engaged in making geographical and geological explorations west of the 100th meridian, will please accept our thanks for his report for 1873.

GEORGE BOWERS has been appointed post-trader at Fort Whipple vice Herbert Bowers deceased. This appointment is in every sense just and right.

Our advices from San Carlos are up to the 9th, and then all was quiet and no apprehension of an outbreak existed there.
